

Prairie Invitational Lifeguard Competition

On Saturday, November 24th Sask Rescue will be hosting the 2007 Prairie Invitational Lifeguard Competition at the Saskatoon YMCA. . The entrance fee will be $100/per team (up to 4 members) and $25/per individual. To register, please contact Chris Clark at saskrescue@hotmail.com.

Schedule of Events: Lifeguard Competition

9:00 am

10:00am

Medley Relay
Line Throw
Speed Spinal Event

1:00pm

First Aid & Water Rescue

4:00pm

Priority Assessment

5:00pm

Competition Done

7:00pm

Social and Awards at a location yet to be determined.

Lifesaving Competition

Water Rescue
First Aid & Resuscitation Skills

Approach & Tow or Carry
Line Throw
Object Support

Victims for the Lifeguard Competition

For complete details please visit www.geocities.com/saskrescue/compprairies2006.htm

Lifesaving Standard First Aid/ Aquatic Emergency Care/AED Instructor Course in Regina

When: Saturday, October 27th &
Sunday, October 28th.

Where: Regina

Prerequisites: Current Lifesaving Instructor
Current Standard First Aid/AEC
Advanced Instructor Course

Cost: $226.18 Including Manuals

Please contact the office to register @ 780-9255

Exam Standards Clinic—Regina

When: Thursday, October 25th
5:00pm-9:00pm

Where: Lawson Aquatic Centre Regina

Bring: Pen, Paper, Swimsuit, Bronze
Family Award Guide,
Canadian Lifesaving Manual

Cost: Free

To register, call the office @ 780-9255

The above picture shows some of the province's newest Bronze Medallion and Bronze Cross award holders. They were taught this July in Ile-a-la-Croise by Jocelyn Chandler.

Code of Conduct for Lifesaving Society Members

The Lifesaving Society's Code of Conduct is in place to guide the professional and legal behaviour of its members related to their roles within the Lifesaving Society.

We encourage Lifesaving Society members (including lifeguards, instructors, affiliates, etc.) to review the Code of Conduct document provided in this month's newsletter attachment. We also would like to make members aware that a Certification Review Process is in place for breaches (reported) to the Code of Conduct.